Hello from Amazon Selling Partner Support,

From your email, we understand your query regarding selling applications.

Please be informed that, the reason why you are unable to see 'request approval' is because we are currently not accepting applications to sell this products.

If your account becomes eligible to sell this product, you will see "Apply to sell" next to the product in the "Add Products" feature in Seller Central. Selling Partner Support is unable to provide additional information regarding these decisions.

For more information on Amazon policies and products that require approval, go to:

-- "Selling Applications FAQ":

Hello:

I understand the following ASINs now require approval to sell:

ASIN B09V86BCXJ
ASIN 0786967358
ASIN B09V845V8Y
ASIN B09V84NV18
ASIN 078696734X

However, I was previously able to sell these ASINs and had listed on these ASINs before the approval to sell was required.

I have inventory prepped, labeled, boxed and palletized; and have been waiting until Q4 to send to FBA.

Please allow me to sell these ASINs, and kindly reinstate the FNSKUs so I can sell the inventory as planned this Q4.

Thank you.

Hello:

Following up on this. Please allow my account the ability to sell brand "Dungeons & Dragons". Thank you.
